Thoughts of the Week

Week 1: There are two ways of meeting difficulties. You alter the difficulties or you alter yourself to meet them.
-Phyllis Bottome

Week 2: I don't go by the rulebook. I lead from the heart, not the head. - Princess Diana

Week 3: Do not call for black power or green power. Call for brain power. -Barbara Jordan

Week 4: Don't be afraid your life will end; be afraid that it will never begin. -Grace Hansen

Topic: Characters and Events associated with Christmas. We will take a closer look into the lives of certain people and events associated with Christmas (i.e. Mary and the Jews were looking for a prophet to come--a prophet like Moses)

Lesson for the Month: The (Giving) Spirit of Christmas

The youth will understand that Christmas is more about a spirit of giving than receiving, and that this concept goes way beyond gifts.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to perpetuate the gospel of Jesus Christ (the good news of the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord and Saviour). We want to proclaim these glad tidings to all, to provide a clear and direct route to God, to prepare all that will believe and receive for the much anticipated great and glorious return of our Lord.
