A Thought for the Week:

by Mike Murdock

Week 1: Never give more time to a critic than you would give to a friend.

Week 2: Crisis always occurs at the curve of change.

Week 3: What you can tolerate, you cannot change.

Week 4: Anger is the birthplace for solutions.

How to Keep From Becoming a Holiday Crime Victim

The following tips can help you be more careful, prepared and aware during the holiday season.

- Try to shop during the day, but if you do shop at night, do not do it alone.
- Dress casually and comfortably.
- Avoid wearing expensive jewelry.
- Do not carry a purse or wallet, if possible. Consider bringing a security travel pouch instead.
- Always carry your driver's license or identification along with necessary cash, checks and/or a credit card you expect to use.
- Recognize when you are rushed, distracted and stressed out, and stay alert to what is going on around you.
- Avoid carrying large amounts of cash.
- Pay for purchases with a check or credit card when possible.
- Keep cash in your front pocket.
- If you discover that a credit card is missing, notify the credit card company as soon as possible. Don't assume that you misplaced it and will find it later.
- Keep a record of all of your credit card numbers in a safe place at home.
- Be extra careful if you do carry a wallet or purse. They are the prime targets of criminals in crowded shopping areas, terminals, bus stops, on buses and other rapid transit.
- Avoid overloading yourself with packages. It is important to have clear visibility and freedom of motion if you are approached.
- Beware of strangers approaching you for any reason. At this time of year, con-artists may try various methods of distracting you, including working in teams, with the intention of taking your money or belongings.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to perpetuate the gospel of Jesus Christ (the good news of the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord and Saviour). We want to proclaim these glad tidings to all, to provide a clear and direct route to God, to prepare all that will believe and receive for the much anticipated great and glorious return of our Lord.
