Thoughts of the Week

Quotes taken from "The Four Loves" by C. S. Lewis

- Week 1: The typical expression of opening Friendship would be something like, "What? You too? I thought I was the only one!"
- Week 2: Do you love me? means Do you see the same truth?-Or at least, "Do you care about the same truth?"
- Week 3: Those who cannot conceive Friendship as a substantive love but only as a disguise or elaboration of Eros betray the fact that they have never had a Friend.
- Week 4: In God there is no hunger that needs to be filled, only plenteousness that desires to give.

Lesson for the Month – “Moving Forward With Freedom”

The youth this month will review papers declaring their freedom in the form of the scriptures. There is little profit in being freed but not moving forward. God desires that we not only be free, but free indeed!

Scripture: Deuteronomy 6:23

Youth Night – Date and Time TBA (Age 10 and up)

7 Simple Ways to Get Organized for Tax Season

Are you usually frazzled before the tax deadline or calm as a zen master knowing all your paperwork is in order? With our hectic lives, who has the time to keep up with the busy work of tax organization? While it may seem tedious and time-consuming, meticulous record keeping has its benefits, especially for small business owners.

Here are a few simple ways stay organized and "file ready" before the deadline April 15th:

- 1. Designate a space in your home just for tax organization. Whether this be a home office, kitchen table, a corner in your dining room, whatever, make sure your tax record keeping and organization area has a home.
- 2. Organize receipts and/or invoices by appropriate category. For this, you could use plain envelopes or file folders with the category label written on them. To make the task more inspiring, use pretty folders or file boxes.
- 3. Use the scanner or iPhone to simplify. Want easier access to receipts from your computer or laptop? You could either scan or use your mobile phone camera to snap pictures of your receipts and save to your computer. Some apps make it easy to store your scanned items like Shoeboxed.com.
- 4. Log business activities in a calendar or Outlook for extra documentation. In the event of an audit, you want to make sure you leave an organized paper trail. Save necessary emails in a folder or onto Evernote. Also, log activities to an Outlook or Google Calendar and have a printout ready to go.
- 5. Use software to record expenses. You could keep it simple by making an Excel spreadsheet, or invest in software like Mint or Quicken which may sync to TurboTax.
- 6. Make tax organization a habit, like brushing your teeth or going to the gym. Better yet, schedule organization time on your calendar. If too busy to deal with organization, outsource the task to a book keeper or accountant to do the work for you on a regular basis.
- 7. Change your mindset. While these steps may seem like a hassle, think about the benefits of getting your stuff together and not freaking out over missed deadlines. Visualize that tax refund you're entitled to after all your hard work.
