Topic: The Chemistry of Prayer

The disciples of Jesus did not ask the Lord, "Teach us to preach" or "Teach us to sing," but they asked for this one great thing; Lord teach us to pray." Luke 11:1

Lesson for the Month Understanding the Game You're Playing

Do you tend to focus on the game in front of you, or do you always see the tournament in your head? How does that compare to your outlook on life? This month the youth will focus on the game of basketball and the spiritual lesson it can teach.

Youth Night – Friday, May 15th @ Good News Church

Practical Life Tidbits

The Meaning of Memorial Day

Memorial Day, an American holiday observed on the last Monday of May, honors men and women who died while serving in the U.S. military. Originally known as Decoration Day, it originated in the years following the Civil War and became an official federal holiday in 1971. Many Americans observe Memorial Day by visiting cemeteries or memorials, holding family gatherings and participating in parades. Unofficially, at least, it marks the beginning of summer.

Evolution of Memorial Day

Memorial Day, as Decoration Day gradually came to be known, originally honored only those lost while fighting in the Civil War. But during World War I the United States found itself embroiled in another major conflict, and the holiday evolved to commemorate American military personnel who died in all wars.

For decades, Memorial Day continued to be observed on May 30, the date General John A. Logan had selected for the first Decoration Day. But in 1968 Congress passed the Uniform Monday Holiday Act, which established Memorial Day as the last Monday in May in order to create a three-day weekend for federal employees; the change went into effect in 1971. The same law also declared Memorial Day a federal holiday.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to perpetuate the gospel of Jesus Christ (the good news of the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord and Saviour). We want to proclaim these glad tidings to all, to provide a clear and direct route to God, to prepare all that will believe and receive for the much anticipated great and glorious return of our Lord.
