A Thought for the Week:

- Archbishop Benson

Week 1: Eagerly start the day's main work.

Week 2: Do not murmur at your busyness or the shortness of time, but buy up the time all around.

Week 3: Never exaggerate duties by seeming to suffer under the load, but treat all responsibilities as liberty and gladness.

Week 4: Avoid complaining when your advice or opinion is not consulted, or having been consulted, set aside.

Topic: Passages That Show How Jesus Addressed Complaints.

Complaints about "insensitive toward you" people/"less spiritual than you" people/"outside your group" people/"just plain wicked" people

WORD FOR THE MONTH – Oath

A solemn promise; Usually a formal calling upon God invoking a divine witness.

Youth/Adult

Sunday Morning 10:00 A.M. - 10:30 A.M.

Recognizing Harassment in a Diverse Workplace

What is Harassment?

Most harassment policies define harassment as verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual on the basis of that person's: Race, Color, National origin, Citizenship, Religion, Gender, Marital status, Sexual orientation, Age, Disability or any other characteristic protected by law.

Harassing conduct includes:

- Abusive words or phrases, slurs, or negative stereotyping
- Threatening, intimidating or hostile acts
- Put-down jokes
- Written or graphic material that shows hostility or aversion to an individual or group

Harassing behaviors are not always obvious. Often, these behaviors are hidden behind humor, insinuations, or subtle remarks or acts. Harassing behavior does not have to be obvious or be damaging.

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination/harassment.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to perpetuate the gospel of Jesus Christ (the good news of the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord and Saviour). We want to proclaim these glad tidings to all, to provide a clear and direct route to God, to prepare all that will believe and receive for the much anticipated great and glorious return of our Lord.
